1. During the past three months the Serviciul de Cadre of each state enterprise in Rumania has been conducting a review of all personnel in their respective organizations for the purpose of reevaluating members of the Rumanian Workers Party.

2. Individuals are called before the members of the Serviciul de Cadre of their organizations for interrogation. The interrogation sometimes lasts an entire day. Various "responsible" who have compiled information concerning the individuals being interrogated are also present. Informant stated that during the interrogation these "responsible" often interrupted to accuse the person being interrogated of lying, then to support their accusations they would read, from dossiers in their possession, accounts of the particular individual's activities. Informant stated that some of the functionaries who had been interrogated told her that they were amazed to find that every intimate detail of their life was known to the Serviciul de Cadre and the various "responsible".

3. The reevaluation process continued during January 1950, but [REDACTED] 25X1X [REDACTED] no decisions had been publicized.
